If you've ever wanted to walk into your boss's office and quit, now is the time to do it. Well, soon is the time to do it, after you've applied for and been accepted to blog on behalf of THIRDHOME in what must be the best job of all time. The luxury home exchange company wants to pay you to travel around the world for three months, staying in multi-million dollar homes as you go. Your job, for which you'll be compensated $10k per month on top of all travel expenses, is simply to write, blog, vlog and share the THIRDHOME travel experience on social media or, in other words, do what you do anyway but in cooler locations and not for free. To be qualified, you must have experience in international travel, social media, writing, blogging, and vlogging. Applicants must also be at least 18 years of age and have a valid passport and driver's license and be available to travel for three consecutive months from late summer to late fall 2017.

We've stayed in a THIRDHOME property before, so we can definitely attest to the magic of pretending as though you live in a mansion. The idea of getting paid to do so absolutely blows our mind, especially all over the world. Oh, and the final cherry on top of this entire proposition? You're welcome to bring a friend or loved one along for the ride. To apply, submit a one-minute video explaining why you are the best candidate for the position to bestjobontheplanet@thirdhome.com. Now if you'll excuse us, we'll be trying to figure out how we can combine our sick leave and vacation days to somehow equal out to three months worth of time off.
